

20 Compound X is a chloroalkane of molecular formula $\text{C}_7\text{H}_{15}\text{Cl}$.

It undergoes a hydrolysis reaction when warmed with an excess of aqueous sodium hydroxide.

When the reaction is complete, the major organic products form a racemic mixture.

What could be the identity of X?

